Save time with smart load matching

A new, easier way to find loads.

The Smart Load Board is the only load board that uses AI to make recommendations tailored to your needs and preferences. No searching necessary.

Exclusive access to high-quality loads

Access thousands of loads from the industry's most-trusted brokers that you won't find on other load boards.

Every load has all the details you need to make informed decisions. From pickup and drop-off time to commodity and weight.
